Call for papers for the Workshop on Gender and Household Economics

The Research Institute for Development, Growth and Economics (RIDGE) and the Women Economists in LAC - WELAC (LACEA) are pleased to announce a call for papers for the Gender and Household Economics Workshop to be held in Montevideo, Uruguay on 15-16 May. The Workshop encourages the submission of papers that examine gender implications broadly defined from all fields in economics and similarly for household economics.

The RIDGE Forums and LACEA networks aim to favor the spread of high-quality research in economics by bringing together top researchers working on the frontier of knowledge and policymakers. Participants to any workshop are welcome and encouraged to attend the other workshops.

WELAC is a standing committee of LACEA whose goal is to promote and support the careers of women economists. This is our third workshop in this general area. The program of previous workshops and more information about WELAC can be found here.

The 2023 workshop will take place within the framework of the 2023 RIDGE MAY Forum along with the following workshops:

LACEA Impact Evaluation Network, April 20-21

LACEA Brain, May 15

RIDGE-LACEA-PEG Workshop on Political Economy, May 15-16

LACEA's Health Economics Network, May 15-16

The Economics of Crime, May 15-16

LACEA Labor, May 16

LACEA Inequality & Poverty, May 16-17

LACEA-EHN Workshop on Historical Development, May 17-18

Public Economics, May 18-19

The RIDGE forums aim at the spreading of high-quality research in economics by bringing together prestigious researchers working on the frontier of knowledge to local and regional researchers and policymakers.
