The RIDGE Summer School will take place in the framework of the LACEA-LAMES Meeting between 14-16 November, 2024 in Montevideo, Uruguay, with the support of Universidad de la República (UdelaR). In addition to attending six RIDGE Summer School lectures by highly reputed economists, students are expected to participate of the LACEA-LAMES Meeting attending plenary and invited sessions.

For further information on the LACEA-LAMES Meeting visit www.lacealames2024.org.

The RIDGE Summer School aims to give young economists the opportunity to be part of the debate about the frontier of knowledge in economics.

Participants

The Summer School targets outstanding graduate economists. Priority will be given to Latin American and Caribbean students enrolled in Post graduate programs in economics.

Interested students should apply by submitting a short CV (2 pages maximum), a transcript, and a letter of recommendation via the RIDGE website: <https://www.ridge.org.uy/summer-school/summer-school-december-2024/>

The Scientific Committee, following standard criteria, will make the selection according to: GPA, publications and awards, a letter of recommendation and work experience.

The deadline for applying is July 31, 2024

The notification of the Scientific Committee decision will be sent August 22, 2024

Only selected students will participate.

Financial support

The organization will cover up to 4 hotel nights in shared accommodation. Participants to the RIDGE Summer School will be exempted of payment of the LACEA-LAMES Meeting registration fees.
